SPIRIT OF THE WEST

Nearing the three-and-a-half decade mark, Spirit of the West continues to rock audiences with their original and potent blend of Folk, Celtic, Rock, Pop and Punk. The band that began in 1983 as an innocent trio of acoustic guitar, flutes and bouzouki is now a musical and performance powerhouse that features 6 musicians and dozens of instrument changes in a nights' worth of timeless and beloved songs.

With 13 albums to their credit, five of them gold and three platinum, a history of extensive touring throughout the western world, and the authorship of a drinking song "Home For a Rest", so well known and loved that it is often called 'Canada's unofficial national anthem', Spirit of the West's legacy has grown to legendary status.

Fan favourites such as 'And if Venice is Sinking', 'Save This House', 'Puttin' Up with the Joneses' and the quintessential drinking song 'The Crawl' have etched themselves into the soundtrack of youth of several generations of Canadians.

In recognition of Spirit's long career they have been inducted into the Hall of Fame of the Western Canadian Music Association, have received the National Achievement Award from the Society of Composers, Authors and Music Publishers of Canada, and were, in 2014, presented with a star in Vancouver's 'Starwalk', located on Theatre Row on Granville Street.

The band consists of John Mann (vocals); Geoffrey Kelly (vocals, guitar, flutes, whistles, bodhran); Hugh McMillan (vocals, basses, nearly all other stringed things on Earth); Tobin 'The Gull' Frank (basses, accordion, keyboards); Matthew Harder (vocals, guitars) & Vince Ditrich (vocals, drumkit, percussion, management, refreshment coordination). Spirit enjoys a brilliant technical crew that is well worthy of mention: Chris Hibbins (FOH Mix/Tour Management) & Andre Arsenault (Stage Management/Guitar Tech).

THE PAPERBOYS

This award winning, critically acclaimed band serves up a heady blend of country-folk-celtic-bluegrass-rock with a traditional bit of Mexican music thrown in there for good measure.

Lead singer, Tom Landa, was born in Mexico to a Canadian mother of Irish ancestry – thus accounting for at least two of his musical influences – he later moved to Canada where he founded the Paperboys in 1992. The band's sound has evolved a lot since the early days. It now includes a 3 piece horn section and digs deep into Tom's Mexican heritage by adding Son Jarocho and Afro-Mexican grooves to the mix.

The Paperboys are renowned for their energetic live performances and have wowed festival goers the world over. They create a buzz wherever they play and it is no wonder with Tom Landa's richly expressive vocals backed up by a medley of whistle, flute, banjo, percussion, guitar and jarana (a small Mexican guitar.)

The lively jigs and reels are sure to get you moving, so get your dancing shoes on and prepare for an exhilarating evening of entertainment.

COMEDIAN ROMAN DANYLO LIVE

Roman Danylo is "Roman around the country" in this variety comedy show consisting of sketch, stand-up, and improv. The show is both light-hearted and edgy and takes on various subjects from love, to war, to snacks at the mall food court. Roman begins his show with high energy observational stand-up, then incorporates audience members into interactive comedy sketches, all the while peppering in some of his popular characters from TV.

With all types of comedy and a wide range of topics, Roman Danylo Live has a little something for everyone. Once you've seen this show you'll never need to watch comedy again!

Roman has appeared on CBC's The Debaters and Just For Laughs. For five seasons he starred on CTV's sketch comedy show Comedy Inc.

MONSTER THEATRE

Til Death: The Six Wives of Henry VIII

The Betrayed Wife. The Scheming Wife. The Peacemaker. The Ugly German. The Slutty One. The One in Love with Someone Else. Six Queens. Six Love stories. Six Deaths. One Actress!

It all starts in the afterlife, in a bizarre waiting room of sorts. One by one, the wives of Henry VIII arrive, much to the shock and dismay of each previous wife. What culminates is the heated frenzy of an ex-wives club where these women swap stories, toss Anne Boleyn's head around, pick on the ugly German one and, most importantly, fight for the right to be acknowledged as Henry's true bride and eternal partner.

But when Henry arrives...everything changes.

DAVE GUNNING

There are stories that wash over you like a tide, and then there are stories that grab you by the heart. Dave Gunning has made a point of finding the latter and wrapping them up in song since he broke upon the East Coast music scene in Canada back in 1997. The Pictou County, Nova Scotia born and bred singer-songwriter and working class hero has built up from humble beginnings to a point where his name is regularly included in conversation with artists such as David Francey, James Keelaghan, Ron Hynes, Stan Rogers, Bruce Cockburn and Gordon Lightfoot.

Writing from a sonic menu that includes flavors of Irish, Scottish, French Acadian, folk and country musical styles, Dave transcends genre with songs that fill your senses and touch your soul.

“Dave Gunning is the next big thing in the True North of Song, an artist as compelling, as assured and attentive to every nuance of the writing process as Lightfoot, Cockburn and Stan Rogers before him.” - Greg Quill, The Toronto Star

MACHiNENOiSY DANCE SOCIETY

PROX:IMITY RE:MIX

PROX:IMITY RE:MIX is a layered performance combining dance, theatre and a complex multimedia universe that explores being young in this time and place. The show is created and performed by local Revelstoke youth, directed by MACHiNENOiSY artistic directors Delia Brett and Daelik and uses interactive technology like the Xbox Kinect system to trigger sound and visual projections. PROX:IMITY RE:MIX is developed from MACHiNENOiSY'S highly acclaimed 2012 production Law of Proximity.

“The show looks at what the body can do when freed from traditional expectations. Watching the performers slink and twist across the stage is a reminder of what our bodies are capable of.”

-Stephanie Ip, The Province

MACHiNENOiSY is a contemporary dance company that fosters the research and creation of performances which transcend traditional notions of dance and theatre. Artistic Directors

Delia Brett and Daelik have a long and unique history of working together as dancers, teachers and creators both in North America and Europe. They have a shared interest in theatre, film and with the post-modern artistic discipline, Contact Improvisation and its auxiliary practices. They are two of the leading dancer/creators of this art form in Canada, having spent several years developing under the mentorship of Peter Bingham, Canada's premier contact dance choreographer. Their unique approach has marked them as innovators and courageous rule breakers.

The Lunchbox

Dir.: Ritesh Batra
Country: India

Irfan Khan (Life of Pi, Slumdog Millionaire) stars alongside the radiant

Nimrat Kaur in Ritesh Batra's delightful feature debut, in which a mistaken lunchbox delivery paves the way for an unlikely romance. Whether it's the cooking of a meal, the reading of a letter, or the riding of a crowded train, the film's small moments culminate in big impact. In a word: enchanting.

Wednesday October 29, 2014 7:30pm

Like Father, Like Son

Dir.: Hirokazu Koreeda
Country: Japan

This poignant new drama from acclaimed Japanese director Hirokazu Kore-Eda tells the heart wrenching story of two sets of parents whose worlds are turned upside down when they learn that their six-year-old sons were switched at birth.

Like the work of a seasoned symphony conductor, Kore-Eda's direction is at once gentle and powerful, favouring small, tender moments over a single dramatic incident.

Wednesday November 26, 2014 7:30pm

Tracks

Dir.: John Curran
Country: UK/Australia

In 1977, a twenty-seven-year-old Australian woman named Robyn Davidson (Mia Wasikowska) set out from Alice Springs to walk 2,700 kilometres of harsh desert to the Indian Ocean, accompanied only by her dog and four camels. She ultimately wrote about her desert adventure in her 1980 book Tracks, which became a cult favourite around the world and has now been beautifully adapted for the big screen by director John Curran.

Wednesday January 28, 2015 7:30pm

Life's a Breeze

Dir.: Lance Daly
Country: Ireland/Sweden

Life's a Breeze is a feel-good recession comedy about a family struggling to stay afloat and together through hard times in Ireland. In this delightful comedy from director Lance Daly a Dublin family races to recover their grandmother's mattress - and its hidden stash of over a million euros in carefully squirreled-away savings.

Wednesday February 25, 2015 7:30pm

We Are the Best!

Dir.: Lukas Moodysson
Country: Swed/Den.

WE ARE THE BEST! is Moodysson's adaptation of his wife Coco's graphic novel about three young misfits growing up in early '80s Stockholm, who despite having no instruments, or discernible musical talent, put all their energy into forming an all-girl punk band. With tender affection for his young characters and the period in which his film is set, Moodysson paints an ebullient and sharply observant portrait of DIY spirit and growing up different.

Wednesday March 25, 2015 7:30pm

The Railway Man

Dir.: Jonathan Teplitzky
Country: Australia/UK

Based on the remarkable bestselling autobiography, The Railway Man tells the extraordinary and epic true story of Eric Lomax (Colin Firth), a British Army officer who is tormented as a prisoner of war at a Japanese labor camp during World War II. Decades later, Lomax and his beautiful love interest Patti (Nicole Kidman) discover that the Japanese interpreter responsible for much of his treatment is still alive and set out to confront him, and his haunting past, in this powerful and inspiring tale of heroism, humanity and the redeeming power of love.
